Pledge Reminder

The Session would like to remind everyone to keep up with their church pledge as summer approaches. If possible, try paying ahead. Vacation, family visits and time in the sun means Sundays are missed and church income falls as bills continue to arrive. Help us to stay current by remembering your pledge!

Don't Forget Your Pledge This Summer

You Can Help!

To help keep the food pantry at the Church & Community Program well-stocked, our church has been asked to supply cans of peas and carrots. Pick up a few the next time you are at the store and then place them in the box in the foyer. Your efforts will benefit many in our community. Thank you!

We Goofed!

It is tremendously important that we recognize each young person in our church for their efforts and accomplishments in the monthly church newsletter. Life is hard, and growing up even harder. We must endeavor to support the youth of our church in every way possible. Unfortunately, occasionally we mistakenly omit the names of and activities of some, and for this we are profoundly apologetic. Sometimes we aren't aware of everything everyone is doing, aren't in attendance at all the school events or just goof up. In order to double-check that we are including everyone, it would be extremely helpful if parents would email us the activities of their child so we can be sure they are included in the newsletter. Thank You!

The Pastor's Report

Howdy everyone, both far and near!

As I write these words to you we are a mere 10 days away from the start of our five week cross-country trip. As you might imagine we are busy as bees preparing. Boxes and piles are stacked here and there about the house, shopping lists and "to-do" lists abound, and there is still so much left yet to do. First and foremost, which RV will we be taking? The one we purchased and sank a great deal of money into already (will the AC in the cab and the generator be fixed in time)? Or, the one north of Syracuse we've reserved to rent as our "Plan B." Nerve wracking, I can assure you. Whatever else happens, though, come Sunday June 28th, following worship and after the entire congregation marches out into the street to lay hands on whichever RV and pray for safe travels, we will be hitting the road.

I admit that all the hassles with the RV have really distracted me from thinking too much about the trip. Oh, we've certainly been attending to the details and are excited, but until today I really hadn't paused to really consider what it will mean to spend five weeks "on the road." There was a time in my life when this is all I knew, loved and for which I lived. Things certainly have changed since then. A 32 ft RV is sure a world away from a 1970 VW Bus hardtop camper. The context of my life, too, is greatly different: spouse, kids, church, property, obligations and bills to pay. The "carefreeness" of this trip hardly feels free. Yet, this morning, driving my motorcycle back from yet another visit to Rt. 11 Trucking (which has been great about all this by the way) I started to remember...

I remembered that a good deal of the Biblical narrative is about the journey from where one is, to where one needs to be next: Abraham and Sarah called to a new home, the people of Israel wandering in the desert on the way to the promised land, and Joseph and a very pregnant Mary seeking shelter for the night. I also remembered how important the notion of hospitality is in both the Hebrew and New Testament Scriptures: food and refuge offered to strangers, foreigners being welcomed to a new home land, evangelists moving from one town to the next proclaiming the Good News, eating and drinking what is given and appreciating the rest which has been earned.

This has been a challenging year for me both personally and professionally. It has also been quite some time since I've had a sustained break from my responsibilities here at the church. It is my great hope that this trip will be the restive and restorative sabbath I need, and that our sons might gain a greater appreciation for our nation and this life through the experience of traversing the continent.

Before I head out on this adventure, though, I would like to thank each of you for your support in making this trip possible; it is a lovely gift you are giving to our family, and Linda and I are deeply appreciative. I would ask for your prayers for both a safe journey and return. See you in August! - Rev. Mike

Ghosts From The Past

by Tyke Miller

It was difficult to pick a subject for sharing with you from the Sesquicentennial booklet covering 1807 to 1957 because it contains so many items from our church's long history. So, here we go!

The section is titled "Building For The Future." The Rev. Earnest E. Eells was called to the pastorate in the early days of 1948. His ministry laid the ground work upon which we strive to build today. He first recommended the establishment of a West-minister Fellowship, the current Presbyterian program for high school young people. The Session accepted the suggestion and the work was begun. The Ladies Aid, still going strong, decided to reorganize under the denominational program suggested, and in 1949 the name was changed to the Presbyterian Women's Organization, or the P.W.O. There was an interesting note in the minutes of the Ladies Aid at the time of reorganization: "Because many younger women shy away from the name Ladies Aid with the feeling it implies a group of stiff necked old women - which we know we're not - and because it is the name most commonly used in our National, Synodical and Presbyterial Societies." The organization was just as active and energetic as ever, and the reorganization was only adopted to keep up with the changing times. The women have served the church, both locally and through missionary giving, just as faithfully as ever under the P.W.O.

It seems to me not much has changed in respect to our women of the church. The various women's groups are actively involved in local, community and international activities. Aren't we thankful God made women?

And remember this was written in 1957!

Jack Miller is being honored by the Fort La Presentation Association at the Founders Weekend in Ogdensburg July 18 and 19, 2015. His photo in his Revolutionary uniform and a biography of re-enacting from 1974 to the present will be included in the program of activities for the weekend. The family is very proud as he would be.

Glenn and Marty Pierce wrote Rev. Mike last month after reading the April Pastor's Report about the trip across country that he, Linda and the boys will be making. They graciously offered an invitation to visit (and use of their own "dump station"!). They say hello to all their friends back in Canton, and shared the news of their son Larry's success in his career working as the Director of Celery Research and Seed Operations at Duda Farm Fresh Foods in Salinas, California where he has employed for the past 25 years. The Pierces moved to California four years ago to be closer to family. It is great to hear from them. No friends like old friends!

Continued prayers for Ellen Janack who is ailing from a stiffness in neck and shoulder; Fritz Reinhardt (Christa Lyon's father) who has moved to a nursing home; Nancy Lyon who suffered a significant

We would like to congratulate and laud Shirley Norton and Mickey Williams as two of the initial recipients of the newly established John S. Kenny Award given to members of the community who have displayed consistent dedication and generous service to the continuation and promotion of services and program of the Canton Free Library. Well done ladies!

Saving Grace

Each time I see a rainbow
Or a nearby turtledove,
It serves as a memento
of God's eternal love.

I feel His presence near me
On a quiet starlit night,
When the moon soars high above me
And gives off its magic light.

A garden filled with flowers,
Caressed by morning dew,
Reminds me of His handiwork
And gives me strength anew.

A household filled with laughter,
A child at mother's breast,
In times of strife, a Friend for life,
By these we all are blessed

Congratulations J.J.!

Please join me in offering congratulations to Dr. Joseph T. (JJ) Jockel, who has been appointed to a Piskor Professorship. This work includes two books, No Boundaries Upstairs: Canada, the United States and the Origins of North American Air Defence, 1945-1958 (University of British Columbia Press, 1987) and Canada in NORAD, 1957-2007: A History (McGill-Queen's University Press, 2007) and an article, "NORAD Does Not Need Saving" (International Journal: Canada's Journal of Global Policy Analysis, June 2015 70: 188-195, doi 10.1177/0020702015572754.) His most recent monograph is Canada and the Netherlands in Afghanistan (Centre for International and Defence Policy of Queen's University, 2014). He is also the author or co-author of over fifty other scholarly articles, book chapters or short monographs. Dr. Jockel has been
